The American Bible

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

Marks, notations and other marginalia presented in the original volume will appear in this file — a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

This is the easiest to read version we have found. Plus, you can put it on your computer, iPhone or iPad for convenience.

The American Bible provides a "Bridge" between the man-made God of Religions and the obvious God of Science.

THE LIFE AND MORALS OF JESUS OF NAZARETH

Extracted Textually from the Gospels, together with a comparison of his doctrines with those of others.

BY THOMAS JEFFERSON.

THE LIFE AND MORALS OF JESUS OF NAZARETH.

I.

Joseph and Mary go to Bethlehem, Where Jesus is Born.

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

2 (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, (because he was of the house and lineage of David,)

5 To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.
